The full sequence

Day 0 · LinkedIn Connect

Channel: LinkedIn | Timing: Send immediately

Connection request note:

Hi {{first_name}} - I help alcohol and spirits brands run compliant Meta/Google ads without the disapprovals and account limits. Would love to connect.

Day 1 · Email 1 — The Opener

Channel: Email | Timing: Wait 1 day

Subject: Quick question about your ad approvals

Hi {{first_name}},

How much of {{company}}'s ad budget is getting held back by age-gating rules, geo-restrictions, and account limits on Meta and Google?

I'm Cameron, co-founder of Transparent eCom. We help regulated brands get compliant ads live on Meta and Google - no blurring, no bans, no workarounds.

Alcohol sits in a restricted category, and most brands find out the hard way that a standard account fights them at every step - disapprovals, capped delivery, and the occasional full restriction, even when the creative follows every rule.

We run compliance-built ad accounts made for restricted verticals like alcohol, so campaigns actually get approved and stay live.

If that's {{company}}'s situation, worth a conversation. Book a call here.

Best,

Cameron Karkut

Day 3 · SMS 1 — The Nudge

Channel: SMS | Timing: Wait 2 days

Text message:

Hey {{first_name}}, just emailed you about getting {{company}}'s alcohol ads approved and running clean on Meta/Google. Worth a quick look?

Day 5 · Email 2 — How It Works

Channel: Email | Timing: Wait 2 days

Subject: Why the account matters more than the creative

Hi {{first_name}},

Following up - here's what most alcohol brands never get told plainly.

The disapproval usually isn't about the ad. It's the account underneath it: verification, domain and tracking setup, payment standing, and how policy-aligned every asset is. Teams spend weeks reworking creative and resubmitting, and it still gets throttled - because the creative was never the real issue.

We run compliance-built accounts designed to clear review from the start, so you're not fighting the platform every launch.

Short deck walks through it - read here. If a call is easier, grab 15 min here.

Day 7 · Voicemail 1

Channel: Voicemail | Timing: Wait 2 days

Ringless voicemail script (~20–25 sec):

Hey {{first_name}}, this is Cameron from Transparent eCom. Quick one - how much of {{company}}'s ad budget is getting held back by age-gating, geo-rules, and account limits? Alcohol gets treated as a restricted category, and on a standard account you're fighting the platform constantly. We build accounts made for exactly these restricted verticals, so campaigns run clean. Give me a call back at number - again, number. Thanks.

Day 9 · LinkedIn DM 1

Channel: LinkedIn | Timing: Wait 2 days

LinkedIn message:

Hi {{first_name}} - reached out by email but figured LinkedIn might be easier. We keep alcohol and spirits brands' ad accounts approved and live on Meta/Google. Happy to send a short case study - worth a quick chat?

Day 11 · Email 3 — The Proof

Channel: Email | Timing: Wait 2 days

Subject: How we keep restricted brands live

Hi {{first_name}},

Sharing something relevant. We run ads for brands across restricted verticals in exactly {{company}}'s position, where disapprovals and account limits were capping growth.

On compliance-built accounts, brands see a 40% higher approval rate than standard, and stay with us 16 months on average - not because of a contract, because campaigns actually run. The difference was the account infrastructure, not the creative.

If a call feels like too much right now, we also just published our 2026 Meta & Google Ad Compliance Checklist - the exact framework we use to keep accounts alive. Download the checklist here. Or grab 15 min and I'll map it to {{company}}.

Day 13 · SMS 2 — Follow-up Bump

Channel: SMS | Timing: Wait 2 days

Text message:

Hey {{first_name}} - still happy to show you how we keep alcohol ads approved and running clean. Quick call this week? Book here.

Day 15 · Email 4 - The Direct Ask

Channel: Email | Timing: Wait 2 days

Subject: 15 minutes to fix the disapprovals?

Hi {{first_name}},

To keep this simple:

- No minimum ad spend required.
- We review your actual account with you before anything changes, at no cost.
- Send us an ad you've struggled to get through, and we'll show you what it takes.

I'd rather show you than keep describing it. Grab 15 min here.

Best,
Cameron Karkut
Transparent eCom

Day 17 · LinkedIn DM 2

Channel: LinkedIn | Timing: Wait 2 days

LinkedIn message:

Hi {{first_name}} - circling back. If disapprovals or delivery caps are capping {{company}}'s growth, I'd love 15 min to show you how we keep restricted-vertical brands approved and live.

Day 19 · Voicemail 2

Channel: Voicemail | Timing: Wait 2 days

Ringless voicemail script (~20–25 sec):

Hey {{first_name}}, Cameron from Transparent eCom again.

Still think there's a real fit for {{company}} — we keep alcohol and spirits brands approved and live by fixing the account, not just reworking creative. If it's worth a look, call me at number. Again, number. Thanks.

Day 21 · SMS 3 — Final Bump

Channel: SMS | Timing: Wait 2 days

Text message:

{{first_name}}, last nudge - want the breakdown on fixing {{company}}'s ad approvals, or should I close this out?

Day 23 · Email 5 — The Breakup

Channel: Email | Timing: Wait 2 days

Subject: Should I close this out?

Hi {{first_name}},

I've reached out a few times about getting {{company}}'s ads approved and running clean, and wanted to check whether this is worth pursuing now or better revisited later.

This tends to matter most for alcohol, wine, and spirits brands that run Meta/Google ads, hit disapprovals or delivery caps, and want campaigns that actually stay live.

Here's a quick read on how we do it.

If the timing isn't right, that's completely fine - just let me know and I'll follow up accordingly.

Best,
Cameron Karkut
