The full sequence

Day 0 · LinkedIn Connect

Channel: LinkedIn | Timing: Send immediately

Connection request note:

Hi {{first_name}} - I help nicotine brands run compliant Meta/Google ads through the right account setup. Would love to connect.

Day 1 · Email 1 — The Opener

Channel: Email | Timing: Wait 1 day

Subject: Quick question about your ad setup

Hi {{first_name}},

Is {{company}} able to run ads on Meta and Google at all right now - or has the account type made it nearly impossible?

I'm Cameron, co-founder of Transparent eCom. We help regulated brands get compliant ads live on Meta and Google - no blurring, no bans, no workarounds.

Nicotine is one of the toughest categories out there, and here's the thing most brands learn the hard way: the account type is the whole game. On a standard account, it almost doesn't matter what the creative says - it's coming down. On the right account, built for this, campaigns actually run.

If that's {{company}}'s situation, worth a conversation. Book a call here.

Best,

Cameron Karkut

Day 3 · SMS 1 — The Nudge

Channel: SMS | Timing: Wait 2 days

Text message:

Hey {{first_name}}, just emailed you about actually being able to run {{company}}'s nicotine ads on Meta/Google. Worth a quick look?

Day 5 · Email 2 — How It Works

Channel: Email | Timing: Wait 2 days

Subject: The account type is the whole game

Hi {{first_name}},

Following up - here's the part that matters most in nicotine.

Brands spend enormous energy on creative, language, and workarounds. But on a standard ad account, none of it holds - the account itself is the ceiling. The difference between "we can't advertise" and "we're live and scaling" is almost entirely the account infrastructure: how it's built, verified, and policy-aligned from day one.

We run compliance-built accounts designed for exactly this level of restriction. Short deck walks through it - read here. If a call is easier, grab 30 min here.

Day 7 · Voicemail 1

Channel: Voicemail | Timing: Wait 2 days

Ringless voicemail script (~20–25 sec):

Hey {{first_name}}, this is Cameron from Transparent eCom. Quick one - is {{company}} able to run ads on Meta and Google right now, or has the account type made it nearly impossible? In nicotine, the account type is the whole game — on a standard account it almost doesn't matter what the creative says. We build accounts made specifically for restricted verticals like yours. Give me a call back at number — again, number. Thanks.

Day 9 · LinkedIn DM 1

Channel: LinkedIn | Timing: Wait 2 days

LinkedIn message:

Hi {{first_name}} - reached out by email but figured LinkedIn might be easier.

We get nicotine brands live and scaling on Meta/Google through the right compliance account setup. Happy to send a short case study - worth a quick chat?

Day 11 · Email 3 — The Proof

Channel: Email | Timing: Wait 2 days

Subject: How nicotine brands actually stay live

Hi {{first_name}},

Sharing something relevant.

We run ads for nicotine brands in exactly {{company}}'s position, where standard accounts made advertising a non-starter.

On compliance-built accounts, brands see a 40% higher approval rate than standard and run real, scaled spend across Meta - advertising that simply isn't possible on a standard account. The unlock wasn't the creative. It was the account.

If a call feels like too much right now, we also just published our 2026 Meta & Google Ad Compliance Checklist - the exact framework we use to keep accounts alive. Download the checklist here.

Or grab 30 min and I'll map it to {{company}}.

Day 13 · SMS 2 — Follow-up Bump

Channel: SMS | Timing: Wait 2 days

Text message:

Hey {{first_name}} - still happy to show you how we get nicotine brands live and scaling on Meta/Google. Quick call this week? Book here.

Day 15 · Email 4 — The Direct Ask

Channel: Email | Timing: Wait 2 days

Subject: 30 minutes to get you live?

Hi {{first_name}},

To keep this simple:

- No minimum ad spend required.
- We review your actual account with you before anything changes, at no cost.
- Send us an ad you've struggled to get approved - we'll show you exactly what it takes to run it.

I'd rather show you than keep describing it. Grab 30 min here.

Best,
Cameron Karkut

Day 17 · LinkedIn DM 2

Channel: LinkedIn | Timing: Wait 2 days

LinkedIn message:

Hi {{first_name}} - circling back. If being able to advertise at all is the blocker for {{company}}, I'd love 15 min to show you how the right account setup changes that.

Day 19 · Voicemail 2

Channel: Voicemail | Timing: Wait 2 days

Ringless voicemail script (~20–25 sec):

Hey {{first_name}}, Cameron from Transparent eCom again. Still think there's a real fit for {{company}} — in nicotine the account type is the whole game, and we build the accounts that actually run. If it's worth a look, call me at number. Again, number. Thanks.

Day 21 · SMS 3 — Final Bump

Channel: SMS | Timing: Wait 2 days

Text message:

{{first_name}}, last nudge - want the breakdown on getting {{company}} live, or should I close this out?

Day 23 · Email 5 — The Breakup

Channel: Email | Timing: Wait 2 days

Subject: Should I close this out?

Hi {{first_name}},

I've reached out a few times about getting {{company}} live and scaling on Meta/Google, and wanted to check whether this is worth pursuing now or better revisited later.

This tends to matter most for nicotine brands that want to advertise on the major platforms and have found standard accounts make it nearly impossible.

Here's a quick read on how we do it.

If the timing isn't right, that's completely fine - just let me know and I'll follow up accordingly.

Best,
Cameron Karkut
